Seeing God Clearly Through the Flood

Genesis 6–9

Clearly seeing that God is...

Heartbroken over our sin

When the Lord saw that human wickedness was widespread on the earth and that every inclination of the human mind was nothing but evil all the time, the Lord regretted that he had made man on the earth, and he was deeply grieved.

Genesis 6:5–6

Clearly seeing that God...

Gives grace (to Noah and to us)

Noah, however, found favor with the Lord.

Genesis 6:8

Clearly seeing that God...

Judges his wicked creation

Everything with the breath of the spirit of life in its nostrils—everything on dry land died.

Genesis 7:22

Clearly seeing that God...

Brings order out of chaos (“creation” made new)

God caused a wind to pass over the earth, and the water began to subside. The sources of the watery depths and the floodgates of the sky were closed, and the rain from the sky stopped. The water steadily receded from the earth... God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth...every bird of the sky, every creature that crawls on the ground, and all the fish of the sea. They are placed under your authority.”

Genesis 8:1–3, 9:1–2

Clearly seeing that God...

Makes and keeps his covenant promises

"I establish my covenant with you that never again will every creature be wiped out by floodwaters; there will never again be a flood to destroy the earth."

And God said, "This is the sign of the covenant I am making between me and you and every living creature with you, a covenant for all future generations: I have placed my bow in the clouds, and it will be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth."

Genesis 9:11–13
