The Divine Plan: Unfolding or Unraveling?

(The Sacking of Jerusalem)

2 Kings 25

The story gets brutal (25:1–26)

“King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and his entire army advanced against Jerusalem and laid siege to the city.”

- The brutal facts: The city is reduced to rubble and the people are deported to Babylon
- The painful lesson: When God warns of judgment, he’s not bluffing

“So Judah went into exile from its Land.”

The story is not over (25:27–30)

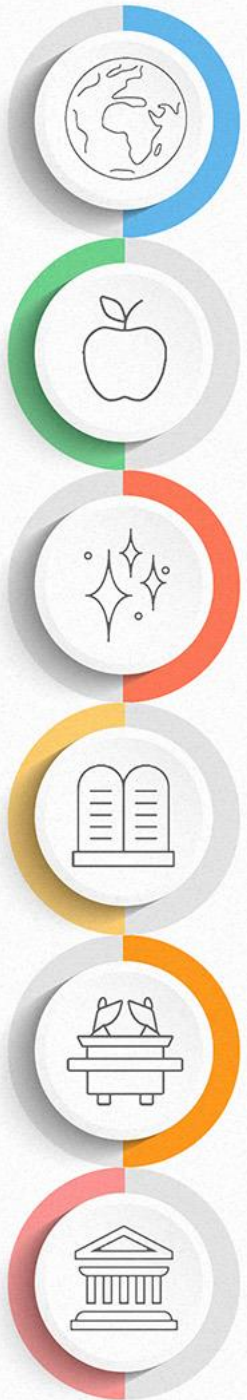

“He spoke kindly to King Jehoiachin of Judah and set his throne above the other kings who were there in Babylon.”

A hint...God was not forgetting...grace wins in the end

Where sin abounded, grace abounded even more.

[Romans 5:20]
