But you, Israel, my servant, Jacob, whom I have chosen, descendant of Abraham, my friend—

I brought you from the ends of the earth and called you from its farthest corners.

*I said to you: You are my servant; I have chosen you;
I haven't rejected you. [Isa. 41:8–9]*

"I am the Lord. I have called you for a righteous purpose, and I will hold you by your hand.

I will watch over you, and I will appoint you to be a covenant for the people and a light to the nations,

*“But, Jacob, you have not called on me,
because, Israel, you have become weary of me.
You have not brought me your sheep for burnt offerings or honored me with your sacrifices.
I have not burdened you with offerings or wearied you with incense.
You have not bought me aromatic cane with silver,
or satisfied me with the fat of your sacrifices.
But you have burdened me with your sins;
you have wearied me with your iniquities.” [Isa. 43:22–24]*

*And now, says the Lord,
who formed me from the womb to be his servant,
to bring Jacob back to him
so that Israel might be gathered to him;
for I am honored in the sight of the Lord,
and my God is my strength—he says, “It is not enough for you to be my servant raising up the tribes of Jacob and restoring the protected ones of Israel.
I will also make you a light for the nations, to be my salvation to the ends of the earth.” [Isa. 49:5–6]*
